CHAP. XXII.

corporate, and it appearing proper that the authority given by the fame act to the county courts aforefaid fhould be extended to land held as well by any body politic and corporate as otherwife:

Courts may iffue commiffions, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Affembly of Maryland, That the refpective county courts within this ftate fhall have jurifdiction, authority and power, under the limitations and directions in the aforefaid act prefcribed, upon application as therein mentioned, to iffue commiffions to mark and bound lands held as well by bodies politic and corporate as others, any thing in the aforefaid act to the contrary notwithftanding.

CHAP. XXIII.

Paffed December 16.

A Supplement to the act for the liquidation and payment of debts againft perfons convicted of treafon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arifen on the conftruction of the above mentioned act, whether the fame doth extend to claims of perfons being citizens of fome other of the United States againft perfons convicted and attainted of treafon; and it is thought reafonable, that the remedy given by faid act ought to be declared to extend to all fuch claims as are herein laft mentioned:

Perfons may lay their claims before the auditor, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Affembly of Maryland, and it is hereby declared, That every perfon, being a citizen of any other of the United States at the time of the paffing of the original act, having any account, debt, claim or demand, which accrued before the paffing of the original act to which this is a fupplement, againft any citizen of this ftate convicted and attainted of treafon, and whofe property has been, or hereafter may be, fold by virtue of the act to difpofe of certain confifcated Britifh and forfeited property, may lay his account, debt, claim or demand, before the auditor-general, who is hereby empowered and directed to liquidate and adjuft the fame, and the balance, if any by him is thought to be juftly due, fhall be figned by the auditor, and, being paffed by the governor and council, may be delivered by the claimant to the treafurer of the weftern fhore, who is hereby directed to affign him any bond or bonds taken for the fale of the particular eftate of which he is a creditor, that may be lodged in the treafury, to the amount of fuch balance fo found due as aforefaid, or credit may be given on any fuch bond or bonds, if defired by the creditor aforefaid, by writing under his or her hand and feal, directed to the treafurer of the weftern fhore.

CHAP. XXIV.

Paffed December 16.

An ACT to eftablifh a road from the town of Talbot, in Talbot county, to Cow Landing on Third-haven creek, in the county aforefaid.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is reprefented to this legiflature, by the petition of a great number of the inhabitants of Talbot county, that the town of Talbot is become a place of confiderable trade, and would be more likely to flourifh, if there was a convenient road from the faid town to navigable water; that the prefent landing place is at the diftance of three miles from the faid town, at a place called Miles river ferry, and the road to the fame is frequently in bad condition; that there is a very convenient landing place at the diftance of near three quarters of a mile from the faid town, at a point of land on Third-haven creek, called Cow Landing, where the water is navigable for veffels of large burthen, but no public road can be had to the fame by reafon of fome enclofed lands lying between the faid town and the faid landing, and part of the faid land is the property of a certain Robins Chamberlain, a minor, and part the eftate of the heirs of Lambert Bookker, who are alfo minors; and the prayer of the faid petition appearing reafonable,

Perfons appointed to lay out a road,

II. Be it enacted, by the General Affembly of Maryland, That Jeremiah Banning, James Thomas, Howes Goldfborough, James Benfon and William Maynadier, or any three of them, fhall be and are hereby authorifed and directed to lay