An ACT for the benefit of Thomas Ruston.

Passed December 27
Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears to this general assembly, that Thomas Ruston, of the state of Pennsylvania, during his residence in Great-Britain, in the late war, manifested his attachment and friendship to the United States; and this general assembly being desirous to remove all disabilities which the said Thomas Ruston may labour under, in consequence of his residence heretofore in Great-Britain;

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all and every disability which the said Thomas Ruston, by the laws of this state, may be liable or subject to in consequence of his residence at any time heretofore in Great-Britain, be and are hereby removed; and the said Thomas Ruston is hereby declared to be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a citizen of the United States, and be vested with the same titles and advantages, with respect to any claim against this state, as if he had been a citizen of Pennsylvania at the time of the death of his father Job Ruston.

Disabilities removed, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Thomas Ruston shall establish his claim to any confiscated property in this state, that the treasurer of the western shore assign to him bonds arising from the sale thereof to the amount or value of such claim, after deducting all expences of the said sale, and all costs which the state may be subject to in consequence of the passage of this act.
