An ACT to empower the vestry of Great Choptank parish to sell or apply the materials of the old church, in said parish, to the building a new church in Cambridge, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

Passed December 27.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the vestry of Great Choptank parish, in Dorchester county, that the church in said parish is in a very ruinous state, and that it is the wish of the parishioners to sell the materials of said church, or to apply the same to the building a new church in said parish,

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the vestry of said parish, or any three or more of them, to sell and dispose of the materials of said old church, and to apply the money arising from such sale to the purpose of building a new church in Cambridge, in the county aforesaid, or to apply the materials of said old church to the building a new church in Cambridge, in the county aforesaid, as in the opinion and judgement of said vestry, or any three or more of them, shall be most conducive to the interest of said parish.

Vestry may sell materials, &c.

III. And, whereas the vestry of said parish is entitled to an estate in reversion of and in part of a lot of ground lying in Cambridge, in the county aforesaid, being parcel of the ground originally laid off for the church lands of said parish: And whereas the said lot of ground is more than sufficient to answer the purpose of a church-yard, and it is the wish of said vestry to apply the money arising from the sale of said reversion to the purpose of building a new church as aforesaid, Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said vestry to sell and dispose of, at public sale, to the highest bidder, having first given public notice of the day of such sale at least four weeks previous thereto, by advertisement at the door of the court-house in said town, all the right and title of said vestry of, in and to the aforesaid part of the lot of land aforesaid, or any part thereof, and to execute such deed of conveyance to the purchaser of said part of the lot of ground aforesaid, as will be sufficient to convey to such purchaser all the right and title of said vestry of, in and to the said part of the lot of land aforesaid, and to apply the money arising from such sale to the building a new church in Cambridge as aforesaid.

And dispose of part of a lot, &c.

An ACT for the benefit of Charles Worthington.

Passed Dec. 27.
Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Charles Worthington, that he intermarried, in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, with a certain Elizabeth Booth, of the city of Williamsburgh, in the commonwealth of Virginia, daughter of a certain William Booth, late of the said commonwealth, deceased, and that he the said William Booth, and Elizabeth his wife, by deed duly made and executed, conveyed sundry negro slaves, in trust, to and for the use and benefit of the children of them the said William and Elizabeth, reserving the use of said negroes to them the said William and Elizabeth, during their lives: And whereas the said William Booth afterwards made and executed his last will and testament, by which he devised
