¹As in 1789 there were no national parties in the presidential election.

²Maryland was entitled to 20 electoral votes but two electors (William Smith and Smauel Hughes) did not attend the meeting on December 5, 1792.

³The vote shown is that for the leading vote getter of all electors who was Alexander Contee Hanson, one of the six elected to represent the Western Shore.

⁴Worcester County did not record or report any votes cast for presidential elector.

⁵There was no organized statewide opposition ticket. For votes of individual elector candidates see Appendix A, Table 2.
