

The first casualties of the Civil War are depicted above which occurred as the Massachusetts Sixth Regiment of Volunteers marched through Baltimore on April 19, 1861. (Maryland Historical Society)