

ELECTORS

James Hodges—At Large
Henry Page—At Large
William Scott Roberts—1st District
James G. Berrett—2nd District
Willoughby N. Smith—3rd District
Isaac Gorham Moale—4th District
Robert C. Combs—5th District
Hattersly W. Talbott—6th District

OPPOSING CANDIDATES

President & Vice President

Benjamin Harrison (R) and
Levi Parsons Morton
Clinton B. Fisk (P) and John A. Brooks

GOVERNOR

Elihu E. Jackson (D)

Secretary of State

E. W. Lecompte

MARYLAND ELECTION RETURNS

Cleveland and Thurman 106,188
Harrison and Morton 99,986
Fisk and Brooks 4,767

Cleveland and Thurman 50.3%
Harrison and Morton 47.4%
Fisk and Brooks 2.3%
Cleveland and Thurman 8 electoral
Harrison and Morton
Fisk and Brooks

NATIONAL ELECTION RETURNS

Cleveland and Thurman 5,540,050
Harrison and Morton 5,444,337
Fisk and Brooks 249,813
Cleveland and Thurman 48.6%
Harrison and Morton 47.9%
Fisk and Brooks 2.19%
Harrison and Morton 233 electoral
Cleveland and Thurman 168
Fisk and Brooks

MISCELLANEA

Harrison, the grandson of William Henry Harrison, gained a narrow victory over his opponent in electoral votes by carrying New York State. A one term President as the voters were dissatisfied with the high prices brought on by the McKinley Tariff Act.

MEETING—Monday, January 9, 1893

(8 Electoral Votes)

PARTICIPATING POLITICAL PARTIES IN MARYLAND

Democratic (D)
Republican (R)
Prohibition (P)
Populist (PO)

VICTORS IN MARYLAND

President & Vice President

Grover Cleveland (D) and
Adlai E. Stevenson—8 electoral votes

ELECTORS

John Lee Carroll
Alonzo L. Miles
William Massey
Frederick William Baker
John Hannibal
Charles Ridgely Goodwin
Abram Claude
William Veirs Bouic, Jr.

OPPOSING CANDIDATES

President & Vice President

Benjamin Harrison (R) and Whitelaw Reid
John Bidwell (P) and James B. Cranfill
James B. Weaver (PO) and James G. Field

GOVERNOR

Frank Brown (D)

Secretary of State

Edward W. Lecompte

MARYLAND ELECTION RETURNS

Cleveland and Stevenson 113,866
Harrison and Reid 92,736
Bidwell and Cranfill 5,877
Weaver and Field 796
Cleveland and Stevenson 53.4%
Harrison and Reid 43.5%
Bidwell and Cranfill 2.8%
Weaver and Field .4%