Federal law set the meeting date for the electoral college on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December; this was the first meeting to be held on that date.

Roosevelt was re-elected to the second term with a higher percentage of popular and electoral votes than before. World War II happened during this term.

NATIONAL ELECTION RETURNS

Roosevelt and Garner 27,751,597
Landon and Knox 16,679,583

Roosevelt disclaimed third term ambitions and in spite of this, was renominated unanimously.
