MISCELLANEA

Women served as Electors on the winning team in Maryland for the first time. The Democrats carried Baltimore City and all counties except Carroll, Charles, Garrett, Harford, Talbot and Wicomico.

Roosevelt was nominated by convention and won the election although not by as large a plurality as previously. The Country went all out for victory, adhering to rigid controls on prices and wages, censorship; strikes and lockouts were forbidden. The secret development of the atomic bomb was going on at this time.
