MEETING—Monday, December 15, 1980
(10 Electoral Votes)

PARTICIPATING POLITICAL PARTIES IN MARYLAND

Democratic (D)
Republican (R)
Independent (I)
Libertarian (L)

VICTORS IN MARYLAND

President & Vice President

Jimmy Carter (D) and Walter Mondale—
10 electoral votes

ELECTORS

Dana C. Beard
Keith S. Franz
Robert H. Goldsmith
Vera P. Hall
Patricia A. Hincken
Isabelle C. Lynch
Harry J. McGuirk
Walter Meinhardt
Austin C. Powell
Marjorie A. Stanley

OPPOSING CANDIDATES

President & Vice President

Ronald W. Reagan (R) and George Bush
John Anderson (I) and Patrick J. Lucey
Edward E. Clark (L) and David H. Koch

GOVERNOR

Harry Hughes (D)

Secretary of State

Fred L. Wineland

MARYLAND ELECTION RETURNS

Carter and Mondale	726,161
Reagan and Bush	680,606
Anderson and Lucey	119,537
Clark and Koch	14,192
Carter and Mondale	47.1%
Reagan and Bush	44.1%
Anderson and Lucey	7.7%
Clark and Koch	.9%
Carter and Mondale	10 electoral
Reagan and Bush
Anderson and Lucey
Clark and Koch

NATIONAL ELECTION RETURNS

Reagan and Bush	43,899,248
Carter and Mondale	35,481,435
Anderson and Lucey	5,719,437
Clark and Koch	920,859
Reagan and Bush	50.75%
Carter and Mondale	41.02%
Anderson and Lucey	6.61%
Clark and Koch	1.06%
Reagan and Bush	489 electoral
Carter and Mondale	49
Anderson and Lucey
Clark and Koch

MISCELLANIA

Carter carried Maryland with Baltimore City, Prince George's, Somerset and Queen Anne's counties, joining Georgia, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Hawaii, West Virginia and the District of Columbia in awarding the electoral votes to the Democrats. Reagan, the oldest President to be inaugurated experienced one of the most sensational victories in political history.