

MEETING—Wednesday, December 5, 1804

(11 Electoral Votes)

PARTICIPATING POLITICAL PARTIES IN MARYLAND

Democratic-Republican (D-R)
Federalist (F)

VICTORS IN MARYLAND

President & Vice President

Thomas Jefferson (D-R) and
George Clinton—9 electoral votes

ELECTORS

John Parnham
Joseph Wilkinson
John Johnson
Edward Johnson
John Tyler
Frisby Tilghman
Tobias E. Stansbury
John Gilpin
William Gleaves
Perry Spencer
Ephraim King Wilson

OPPOSING CANDIDATES

President & Vice President

Charles Cotesworth Pinckney (F) and
Rufus King—2 electoral votes

GOVERNOR

Robert Bowie (D)

MARYLAND ELECTION RETURNS

Jefferson and Clinton	9 electoral votes
Pinckney and King	2

NATIONAL ELECTION RETURNS

Jefferson and Clinton	162 electoral votes
Pinckney and King	14

MISCELLANEA

Jefferson's nomination was the first time the roll call was publicly reported. This election was the first after adoption of the 12th Amendment to the Constitution altering the electoral college procedure, requiring electors to cast separate votes for President and for Vice President.

The second term election was an overwhelming victory for Jefferson. The Aaron Burr treason scandal rocked the nation during this time and Jefferson, who ordered his arrest for the crime of treason, considered it a personal insult when Chief Justice J. Marshall, a Federalist, acquitted Burr.

MEETING—Wednesday, December 7, 1808

(11 Electoral Votes)

PARTICIPATING POLITICAL PARTIES IN MARYLAND

Democratic-Republican (D-R)
Federalist (F)

VICTORS IN MARYLAND

President & Vice President

James Madison (D-R) and George Clinton—
9 electoral votes

ELECTORS

Tobias E. Stansbury
John Rousley Plater
Robert Bowie
Edward Johnson

John Johnson
John Tyler
Nathaniel Rochester
Thomas W. Veazey
Richard Tilghman
Perry Spencer
Henry James Carroll

OPPOSING CANDIDATES

President & Vice President

Charles Cotesworth Pinckney (F) and Rufus
King—2 electoral votes

GOVERNOR

Robert Wright (D)