

Supervisors to aid in the prosecution of offences. 109. It shall be the duty of the supervisors of election to aid in the prosecution of all crimes and offenses against this article, and when, in the judgment of supervisors there is probable cause for believing that an offense has been committed, it shall be their duty to cause a prosecution to be instituted in accordance with the provisions of this article.

COMPENSATION.

Pay of sheriffs, judges, etc. 110. The sheriffs in the several counties shall, respectively, be allowed the sum of twelve dollars ($12) for each election held in their county, for the performance of the duties therein required, to be levied as other county charges; provided, that when two or more elections are to be held on the same day the sheriff shall not be allowed more than twelve dollars for such elections. All judges, whether acting as such or sitting as officers of registration, and clerks of elections, shall be allowed and paid three dollars a day; fractions of a day shall be allowed for at the rate of thirty cents an hour. Each judge and clerk of election who has performed all the duties and services required of him by this article shall be allowed pay for his time, as above provided. When any judge or clerk does not perform all the services required by this article, then such Board of Supervisors of Elections shall audit his time and allow him compensation only for the time during which he has actually served.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Oaths be certified. 111. All oaths required by this article to be in writing shall have a certificate of the officer taking the same attached and signed by him, and said supervisors of elections, officers of registration and judges of election are hereby empowered to administer all oaths and affirmations required in the discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

Definition of terms. 112. The word "election," as used in this article, shall be construed to include elections had within any county or city for the purpose of enabling voters to choose some public officer or officers under the laws of this State, or of the United States, or to pass upon any amendment, law or other public act or proposition submitted to vote by law. The word "precinct," as used in this article, shall be construed to mean an election district in a county or an election precinct in such district, or in a ward of the city of Baltimore, as the case may be.
