

(b) Registers. The headings in the registry books shall be so prepared that the registry shall be made alphabetical, according to the surname of each person applying, and so that the residence and post office address of such person shall appear in the first column. The registers shall be so ruled, and one name shall be written on each line, but no name shall be written between the lines.

(c) Entries. The name and age of every applicant shall be entered in such registry book, and all the facts of his application shall be therein stated whether he be entitled to vote or not. If it shall be determined by the Board that he is not a qualified voter in the precinct or district, then an entry shall be made in the appropriate column "No", and a line shall be drawn in red ink through his name and through all other entries on the line on which his name is written, but so that the name and said other entries shall remain legible. If the applicant is qualified, the entry shall be made in the same column "Yes". If cards or loose-leaf pages are used, a proper notation shall be made thereon if it is determined that the applicant is not a qualified voter, instead of the line in red ink as provided for hereinabove.

(d) Answers. The applicant shall be required to answer the questions under the heads of each and all of the columns. After the answers of the applicant to all such questions have been properly entered by the officers of election in his presence on both registers, and not until then, he shall sign his name upon the same line under the column "Signature", if he can do so. If he shall state his inability to do so, the officers of election shall make the entry "Cannot write" in the place of such signature, and shall follow said entry by a brief notation of the applicant's height, color of eyes, and any distinguishing physical marks.

(e) Registers Compared. At the end of each such session, the registers shall be made to agree, where there is any difference between them, and the officers of registration shall sign their names in their respective registry books immediately under the last name registered under each letter on said registers.

24. Officers of Registration. (a) Designated. The two officers of registration designated by the Supervisors to have custody of the two registry books, or such of their colleagues as either of them may respectively ask to replace him temporarily in the discharge of his duty, shall make the entries therein required by this Article; and the questions as to qualifications shall be asked by the other officers of said Board.

(b) Substitutes. The place of any officer of registration who may be absent on any day of registration or revision shall be filled by the other members of the Board then present, always selecting a person of the same political party as the absent person. The oath prescribed in Section 2 of this Article shall be administered by one of the members of said Board then present to such temporary officer of registration. Whenever the regular officer shall return or be present the temporary incumbent shall vacate his office. The appointment and swearing in of any such substitute and the reasons therefor, and the time when such substitute began and ceased to serve as an officer of registration, shall be noted by the Board in the registers.
