

(c) Write-in Ballots in General Elections. Nothing in this Article contained shall prevent any voter in any general election from writing on his ballot and marking in the proper place the name of any person other than those already printed for whom he may desire to vote for any office. Such votes shall be counted the same as if the name of such person had been printed upon the ballot and marked by the voter.

(d) Date for Printing. Ballots shall be printed and in possession of the Supervisors of Elections at least ten days before election day. A correct list of the names of the candidates thereon with the designation of the offices for which the persons named thereon are candidates shall be furnished on demand by the Supervisors to the candidates or their authorized agents.

(e) Errors. If any mistake be discovered, it shall be the duty of the Supervisors to correct the same without delay. If the Supervisors shall decline or refuse to make correction, then upon the sworn petition of any qualified voter who would have the right to vote for a candidate at the approaching election, the Circuit Court for any county or one of the Judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City may, by order, require the Supervisors of Elections to correct the error or to show cause why such error should not be corrected.

94. Form and Arrangement of Ballots. (a) Names Required. The form and arrangement of the ballots shall be as follows: All ballots shall contain the name of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been certified to and filed according to the provisions of this Article, and not withdrawn in accordance therewith; except that the names of the candidates for the office of Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall not be printed on the ballot, but in lieu thereof the names of the candidates of each political party for the office of President and Vice-President shall be printed thereon.

(b) Alphabetical. The names of candidates for every office shall be arranged alphabetically according to their surnames, under the designation of the office; except that the names of the candidates of each political party for President and Vice-President shall be grouped together, with the party name at the right of the surnames under the designation "Electors for President and Vice-President", and arranged alphabetically in the order of the surnames of the Presidential candidates.

(c) Columnar Listing. All candidates for office shall as far as possible be placed in one column; but when the names to be printed upon the ticket are over thirty-six, another column ~~shall~~ MAY be added in which names shall be printed. When two or more columns are used the same number of names, so far as possible, shall be printed in each column. The initial letters of the given or Christian names of the several candidates in each column shall be printed directly beneath each other in a vertical line, and the initial letter of the respective party designations of said several candidates shall be printed directly beneath each other in a vertical line.

(d) Residence. To the name of each candidate for State office, U. S. Senate or candidate for House of Representatives shall be added the name of the county or city in which that candidate resides. Ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to
