

(p) Be so constructed that a voter may readily learn the method of operating it;

(q) Be safely transportable;

(r) Be so constructed and controlled that, during the progress of voting, it shall preclude every person from seeing or knowing the number of votes registered for any candidate, and from tampering with any of the registering mechanism.

122. Ballot Labels. (a) Requirements. The form and arrangement of ballot-labels shall be in accordance with the provisions as to ballots contained in Section 94 of this Article except that:

(b) Type; Color. Said ballot-labels shall be printed in plain clear type in black ink and, except in primary elections, upon clear white materials, of such size and arrangement as to fit the construction of the machine. For primary elections said ballot-labels may be printed upon clear material or material of different colors, in the discretion of the Boards of Supervisors of Elections.

(c) Party Designations; Candidates. The ballot-label for each candidate or group of candidates nominated or seeking nomination by a political party shall contain the name or designation of such political party; provided, however, that such party name shall consist of one word only. The ballot-labels shall be so arranged that exact uniformity (so far as practicable) will prevail as to size and face of printing of all candidates' names and party designations.

(d) Titles of Offices. The titles of offices may be arranged horizontally or vertically, with the names of candidates for an office arranged longitudinally under or transversely opposite the title of his office. In Baltimore City the titles of offices shall be so arranged that (1) there shall first appear those titles of offices for which the voters of the entire State or of an entire Congressional district may vote, (2) there shall next appear the titles of offices in the General Assembly of Maryland, and (3) there shall next appear the titles of offices for which the voters of Baltimore City may vote, including, but not limited to, the offices of Sheriff, Register of Wills, State's Attorney, City Surveyor, Judges of the Orphans' Court and Clerks of the several courts comprising the Supreme Bench of said City. In a general election in Baltimore County the names of all candidates nominated shall appear in adjacent rows or columns containing generally the names of candidates nominated listed alphabetically, under the office for which nominated and irrespective of party affiliation.

(e) Party Names Grouped. The names of all candidates of a political party shall appear in adjacent rows or columns containing generally the names of candidates nominated by such party. In primary elections the ballot-labels containing the names of candidates seeking nomination by a particular party shall be segregated on the face of the machine in adjacent rows or columns by parties.

(f) Questions to be Voted Upon. Questions to be voted upon, including Constitutional amendments, referenda and other propositions, shall appear on the ballot-labels in the same manner as such questions appear upon the paper ballots, except that they may appear at the top or side of the ballot-labels. There shall be a condensed statement of each question or proposition to be voted upon, conform-
