

(i) Knowingly, wilfully or fraudulently to interfere with, delay or hinder in any manner any judge or clerk of election in the discharge of his duties; or,

(j) Knowingly, wilfully or fraudulently to counsel, advise, induce or attempt to induce any judge or clerk of election, whose duty it is to ascertain, proclaim, announce or declare the result of any such election, to give or make any false certificate, document, report, return or other false evidence in relation thereof; or to refuse or neglect to comply with his duty, or to violate any law regulating the same; or to receive the vote of any person in any election precinct not entitled to vote therein; or to refuse to receive the vote of any person entitled to vote therein;

(k) To aid, counsel, advise, procure or assist any voter, person or judge of election or other officer of election to do any act by law forbidden, or in this Article constituted an offense;

(l) To WILFULLY omit to do any act by this Article directed to be done.

175. Neglect or Fraud by Officials. If any judge of election, or any officer or official of registration, revision, election or canvass or any member of any committee, or of the governing body, of any political party participating in primary elections under this Article, or any delegate to a convention or party executive, of whom any duty is required in this Article, or by any other election law of this State, shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of such duty, or any corrupt or fraudulent conduct or practice in the execution of the same, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than three years, or by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

176. Election Officials Not Serving. Any person selected by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of any county or of Baltimore City as a judge of election, as hereinbefore in this Article provided, who shall fail or refuse to serve as such judge of election, or who having been notified by said Board of Supervisors to appear for examination of his qualifications for judge of election, shall fail or refuse so to appear for examination, shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) and not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300), unless it shall appear that he was not qualified for such service or appearance for such examination by reason of ill health, infirmity or old age.

177. Absence of Election Officials. If any officer of registration in any election precinct shall without urgent necessity absent himself from the place of registration during the hours prescribed by law for registering voters, or if any judge of election shall without urgent necessity be late at the opening of the polls at any general, special or primary election or shall absent himself therefrom during the election or during the canvass of ballots or the making up of the returns, he shall upon conviction thereof be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than ten days nor more than six months, or shall be fined not less than Twenty Dollars ($20) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500).
