

186. Voting by Person Who Has Lost Civil Rights. If any person who shall have been convicted of bribery, felony or other infamous crime, under the laws of this or any other state, and who has never received a pardon for such offense from the officer entitled to grant such pardon, shall thereafter vote or offer to vote at any general, special or primary election in this State, he shall, upon conviction thereof be adjudged guilty of a felony. For each and every such offense, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years.

187. Disobedience to Election Officials. If any person shall wilfully disobey any lawful command of any judge of election or of any board of registry, given in the execution of his or their duty as such, at any registration or general, special or primary election, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10), nor more than Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250), or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

188. Breach of the Peace. If during any registration of voters or revision thereof, or on the day of any general, special or primary election or during the canvass of votes cast thereat or during any subsequent canvass by any board of canvassers, any person shall cause any breach of the peace, or be guilty of any disorder, violence or threats of violence whereby any such registration, revision, election or canvass shall be impeded or hindered, or whereby the lawful proceedings of any officer or board of registration, or of any judge or other officer of such election, or challenger or person designated to be present during the reception or canvass of any ballots, or of any canvassing board as hereinbefore provided, are interfered with, such person shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

189. Hindering Election Officials. The following offenses shall be misdemeanors and punishable under the provisions of this section:

(a) Any person who knowingly or wilfully shall obstruct, hinder or assault, or by bribery, solicitation or otherwise, interfere with any officer of registration, or any judge of election or challenger or person designated, as provided in this Article, to be present at the reception or canvass of any ballots, in the performance of any duty required by him or which he may by law be authorized or permitted to perform; or

(b) Any person by any of the means before mentioned or otherwise unlawfully who shall, on any day of registration or revision of registration or on the day of any general, special or primary election, hinder or prevent any officer of registration, judge of election, challenger or person designated as provided in this Article to be present at the reception or canvass of ballots, in his free attendance and presence at the place of registration or revision of registration, or of election in the election precinct in and for which he is appointed and designated to serve, or in his full and free access and egress to and from any such place of registration, revision of registration or of
