2-7. Judges of election.

(a) Each board biennially shall appoint for each precinct, at least four (4) judges. An equal number of such judges shall be selected from the majority party and the principal minority party in the State; and the board in making any such appointments shall designate the persons intended by it to represent each such political party. The board may require the attendance of these persons before it for examination with respect to their qualifications.

(b) Each judge so appointed must be a registered voter residing in the election district or ward in which the precinct for which he is appointed is located. He must be able to speak, read and write the English language; and during the time of acting as a judge must not hold or be a candidate for any other public or political party office. Each board may prescribe such rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for determining the qualifications of persons proposed for appointment as judges.

(c) Each member of the board shall have a veto upon the proposed appointment of any judge. If in any instance in consequence of the use of such a veto, the board cannot agree upon an appointment, then the member or members of the board belonging to the political party entitled to be represented by such judge shall name three (3) eligible persons for the office, and from this list the other
