

“OATH

OF PERSON WHO ASKS THAT A NAME BE REMOVED FROM THE REGISTRY

I, ....., a voter of ..... County, do solemnly swear that I believe that ..... who professes to reside at ..... is not a qualified voter in the ..... precinct of the ..... district or ward of ..... County or Baltimore City, on the ground that (here state ground) .....

Subscribed and sworn to before me this ..... day of ....., 19.....

..... (Notary Public or other person authorized to administer oaths)

Maryland law requires that any person objecting to the registration of any voter must appear in person to substantiate such objection by affirmative proof. Wilful failure to appear at the hearing on such challenge is subject to imprisonment for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or both.”

3-17. Removal because of change of address; forms.

(a) When the board shall learn that a registered voter has removed from the ward, election district or precinct in which he is registered and within six months from the date of such removal has not applied to the board to have his address changed on his registration records, the board shall notify the voter by United States first class mail sent to his address as it appears on the board's registration records that if he does not advise the board by a signed writing of his correct address within two weeks of the date appearing on the notice, his name will be removed from the registration records and he will have to reregister before he can vote in future elections.

(b) (1) Where any voter has removed from the county or Baltimore City, in which he is registered to vote, to another county or Baltimore City he shall apply to the board of the county or Baltimore City to which he has removed, for registration, provided such voter will have been a resident of such county or of a legislative district of Baltimore City for six months by the date of the next general election. He shall be registered in the manner provided in this article, and shall state the fact of his removal from such other county or Baltimore City. The voter shall sign and acknowledge before a person duly authorized to administer oaths, including employees of the board authorized by the board to do so, an authorization to cancel his previous registration on a form substantially as follows:
