

27-8. Instructions to Voters.

The printed instructions for the casting of absentee ballots are as follows:

Instructions to Voters

Enclosed are a State Absentee Ballot, Ballot Envelope and a Return Envelope for use in returning the ballot. Warning: Failure to follow these instructions will invalidate the ballot.

(a) Examine the ballot before marking. When once marked, do not erase. Mark the ballot with either pencil or ink by placing an (X) in the block after each candidate for whom you wish to vote and in the appropriate block after each Constitutional amendment, referendum or any other question (if any appear on the ballot), for or against which you wish to vote. Do not vote for more candidates than the number specified over the names of candidates for each office. The ballot must be marked secretly. Do not sign your name or put on the ballot any mark of identification or any other mark except the (X) mark or the name of a written-in candidate.

(b) Then enclose the ballot in the Ballot Envelope and seal the same.

(c) After sealing the Ballot Envelope, you must, in the presence of a witness, fill in the blanks in the "Oath of Absentee Resident" on the Ballot Envelope(s) and sign (Do not print) your name on the line indicated. You must then swear to the Oath before the witness who must fill in the date, sign his name and indicate his official position in the space provided, and, if a notary public, affix his official seal. The witness must be a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths.

(d) It is absolutely necessary that the "Ballot Envelope" contains nothing but one ballot marked by you.

(e) Enclose the Ballot Envelope in the Return Envelope, seal the Return Envelope and mail at once.

The ballot may be marked and mailed at any time after you receive it but it must be received by the appropriate Board of Supervisors of Elections not later than the closing of the polls on election day. If it is not received prior to such closing, it will not be counted.

(f) If, in any election other than a primary, you desire not to vote for any of the candidates named for any office on the ballot, you may write in, in the appropriate blank on the ballot, the name of the person of your choice for such office.

(g) The Absentee Voting Law provides that anyone who wilfully signs any false application or oath, or who wilfully does any act contrary to the terms and provisions of the Absentee Voting Law with intent to cast an illegal vote or to aid another in doing so, or who wilfully violates any of the provisions of that law or who applies for a ballot under any other name than his own, shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of $1,000 or to imprisonment for not more than two years, or to both, in the discretion of the Court.

(h) If any qualified voter desiring to vote by absentee ballot pursuant to Section 27-2 herein is unable by reason of blindness or physical disability, without assistance, to mark a ballot and sign
