

“Certification of New Resident Voter

I have qualified as a new resident voter in this State to vote for presidential and vice-presidential electors. I have not applied nor do I intend to apply for any absentee voter’s ballot from the state from which I have removed. I have not voted and I will not vote otherwise than by this ballot.

Dated:
 (Signature of voter)

Witness:
 (The registrar)

The voter shall sign the certification upon the carrier envelope as set forth above, and shall then deliver the sealed carrier envelope to the registrar.

28-8. List of new resident voters open to inspection.

Every registrar shall keep open to public inspection a list of all persons who have applied under this subtitle to vote as new residents, with their names, addresses and application dates.

28-9. List to be furnished and used at polls.

A list of new resident voters under this subtitle certified by the registrar shall be furnished to and maintained by the proper registration officials to be used at the polls together with the books and cards of registry of fully qualified voters.

28-10. Challenge; powers of judges of election.

The vote of any new resident may be challenged for cause as provided elsewhere in this Article for any other voters.

28-11. Penalties.

Any person willfully making a false statement or affidavit under this subtitle shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or punished by imprisonment for a term of not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one year or both.

28-12. Application of absentee voting provisions.

Except as otherwise provided in this subtitle, the provisions of law relating to absentee voting by ballot delivered to the applicant at the office of the board shall apply also to the casting and counting of ballots and challenging of votes by new residents, the furnishing of election supplies, ballots, canvassing of ballots, and making proper returns of the results of the election.

28-13. Duty of registration officials to give information.

Whenever it appears to any registration official of this State, that an otherwise qualified person seeking to register has not been a resident of this State for the requisite period, such official shall inform such person of his rights under this subtitle. Every registrar shall inform each applicant under this subtitle of the requisites and procedures for registration as a fully qualified voter.
