

Blair.

Whereupon it was declared that Francis P. Blair of the State of Missouri had received seven votes for Vice President of the United States of America from and after the third day of March next ensuing being the whole number to which the State of Maryland is entitled.

On Motion of Mr Gallatin the Secretary was directed to prepare the usual forms of certificate for the Signatures of the Electors.

Whereupon the Secretary prepared three several certificates agreeably to the following form.

We the undersigned duly electors, Electors of President and Vice President of the United States of America in, and for the State of Maryland (as will fully appear by reference to the annexed documents being the Certificate furnished by the Executive Authority of the State of Maryland, as well as to an abstract of the proceedings of the said Electors do hereby certify that on the first Wednesday, in December, in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty Eight, We met, at the City of Annapolis in the said State being the place where by the Laws of the State of Maryland, the Electors of President and Vice President of the United States on the part of said State are directed to meet and perform the trust reposed in them, and that then and there having duly qualified and organized Horatio Seymour of the State of New York was put in nomination for President of the United States of America for the four years from and after the third day of March next ensuing that we then and there in pursuance of the Constitution and Laws of the United States proceeded to vote by ballot for President of the United States of America, and on counting the ballots, it was ascertained that Horatio Seymour of the State of New York had received Seven votes for President of the United States of America, that then and there Francis P. Blair of the State of Missouri was put in nomination for Vice President of the United States of America for four years from and after the third day of March next ensuing that we then and there in pursuance of the Constitution and Laws of the United States proceeded to vote by ballots for Vice President of the United States of America, and on counting the ballots it was ascertained that Francis P. Blair of the State of Missouri received Seven votes for Vice President of the United States of America.