

On motion of Mr Buchanan the following order was read and adopted;

~~Ordered that we now proceed to fill the vacancy existing in this College agreeably to the act of Assembly of December Session 1833 Chapter 241.~~

On motion of Mr Carter

George M. Lill, Esquire was appointed to fill the vacancy in this Body occasioned by the absence of the Hon Richard B. Cornmichael.

George M. Lill, Esquire appeared in the Senate Chamber qualified by taking the oath prescribed by the Constitution and the Laws and by declaring his belief in the Christian Religion and took his seat.

On motion of Mr Buchanan, a Committee of three was appointed to wait upon the Governor and inform him of the Organization of the College.

A Sealed Communication was received from His Excellency Governor Whyte, by the hands of John S. Mason Secretary of State, covering three Certificates of the Election of the Electors which was read, and

On motion by Mr Carter was ordered to lie on the Table.

On motion by Mr Groome, a Committee was appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Hon Horace Greeley, The Chair appointed Messrs Bradford, Buchanan and Habel as said Committee.

Mr Bradford from said Committee reported the following Resolutions.

Resolved, That the death of Horace Greeley under any circumstances or at any time within the recent history of our country would have awakened in the minds of large numbers of the people genuine expressions of regret; but occurring, as it does, when the people of this State were about to cast for him its electoral vote for the highest office in their gift (President of the United States), it demands from this body as their representative for that purpose an emphatic expression of the profound grief with which the event has impressed us.

Resolved, That our regrets are by no means suggested by or limited to his political relations, but looking to his life-long career without reference to these, we mourn the event as one which our people of every political inclination may
