

1905

Proceedings of Electors of President and Vice President of the United States of America in and for the State of Maryland

On the second Monday of January being the ninth day thereof in the year nineteen hundred and five; the day appointed by the Constitution and Laws of the United States, on which the Electors for President and Vice-President of the United States of America, are directed to assemble and perform the trust reposed in them, there appeared at the hour of noon, in the Senate Chamber in the State House in the city of Annapolis (the time and place designated, by Act of Assembly, for the meeting of said Electors) the following gentlemen who had been proclaimed by the Executive Authority of the State, to have been duly elected, Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, in and for the State of Maryland; to wit:

Frank Brown
Charles J. Bonaparte
Elihu G. Jackson
John G. George
Herbert Shriver
James King
Samuel A. Mudd
Ferdinand Williams

The said Electors severally qualified by taking the oath prescribed by the Constitution to be taken by all civil officers

On motion of Mr Brown
Hon Elihu G Jackson was unanimously chosen President of the College and was escorted to the chair by Messrs Bonaparte, George and Shriver, and upon taking the Chair expressed his appreciation of the compliment paid him by the College