

GIVEN under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland,
Done at the City of Annapolis this ninth day of January, One thousand nine hundred and five

Edwin Warfield
Governor of Maryland

By the Governor
Oswald Delphman
Secretary of State

Which Message was read when the President of the College declared that nominations for President of the United States were in order; therefore

Mr Schreier
Nominated ^{Representative} ^{of the State of New York} Alton Brooks Parker for President of the United States for the term beginning from and after the third day of March 1905 in conformity with the Constitution and laws; and Mr Bonaparte nominated Theodore Roosevelt of the State of New York as President of the United States for the same term

The President of the College thereupon named Alfred Bonaparte and George as tellers who received the ballots which were duly deposited in a ballot box and on counting the ballots announced that Alton Brooks Parker had received seven votes and that Theodore Roosevelt had received one vote, the same being the full Electoral Vote for President of the United States from Maryland

The President of the College announced the vote as aforesaid and

On motion of Mr Porown, the College proceeded to ballot for Vice President of the United States for the ensuing term

Mr Williams nominated Henry Gassaway Davis of West Virginia for the ensuing term; and Mr Bonaparte nominated Charles Warren Fairbank of Indiana

The President of the College named Messrs Bonaparte and George as tellers, who received the ballots in a ballot box which had been delivered to them
