

Which message was read when the President of the College declared that nominations for President of the United States were in order: thereupon James Eric Ray, Jr. nominated William Jennings Bryan of the State of Nebraska for President of the United States for the term beginning from and after the third day of March 1909, in conformity with the Constitution and Laws: and Mr. John A. Robinson nominated William H. Taft of the State of Ohio as President of the United States for the same term.

The President of the College thereupon named H. H. Beidler and John A. Robinson as tellers who received the ballots which were duly deposited in a ballot box and on counting the ballots announced that William Jennings Bryan had received six votes and that William H. Taft had received two votes the same being the full Electoral vote for President of the United States from Maryland.

The President of the College announced the vote as aforesaid and on motion of Mr. Beidler the College proceeded the ballot for Vice President of the United States for the ensuing term.

Mr. Brown nominated John W. Kern of the State of Indiana for the ensuing term; and Mr. Towers nominated James S. Sherman of the State of New York for the ensuing term.

The President of the College named Messrs. Beidler and Robinson as tellers who received the ballots in a ballot box which had been delivered to them, and after receiving the ballots announced that John W. Kern of the State of Indiana had received six votes and James S. Sherman of the State of New York had received two votes for Vice President of the United States.

Whereupon the President of the College declared that John W. Kern of the State of Indiana had received six votes and James S. Sherman of the State of New York had received two votes, the same together comprising the whole Electoral vote of the State of Maryland.

The President of the College then directed the Secretary to prepare the several forms of Certificates for the signatures of the
