

The foregoing being the substance of the report made by the Committee on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college.

The said committee further reports that they have had under consideration the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college and have the honor to report that they are in favor of the same.

The committee further reports that they have had under consideration the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college and have the honor to report that they are in favor of the same.

- 1. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 2. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 3. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 4. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 5. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 6. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 7. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 8. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 9. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.
- 10. That the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college are in favor of the same.

The committee further reports that they have had under consideration the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college and have the honor to report that they are in favor of the same.

The committee further reports that they have had under consideration the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State in relation to the electoral college and have the honor to report that they are in favor of the same.