

Which message was read where the President of the College declared that nomination for President of the United States were in order: whereupon Mr. James Carey nominated Warren Gamaliel Harding of the State of Ohio for President of the United States for the term beginning from and after the third day of March 1921, in conformity with the Constitution and Law; and no one was else nominated for the office of President of the United States.

The President of the College thereupon named Messrs. James Carey and George P. Knobell, Jr., as tellers who received the ballot which were duly deposited in a ballot box and by counting the ballots announced that Warren Gamaliel Harding had received eight votes, the same being the full Electoral vote for the President of the United States.

The President of the College announced the vote as apportioned and the College proceeded to vote for Vice-President of the United States for the term beginning from and after the third day of March 1921, in conformity to the Constitution and Law.

Mr. Hollingshead Henkel nominated Calvin Coolidge of the State of Mass for Vice-President for the ensuing term.

The President of the College named Messrs. A. C. Haydon and William T. Delaplaine as tellers who secured the ballot box which had been delivered to them, and after receiving the ballots announced that Calvin Coolidge of the State of Mass had received eight votes for Vice-President of the United States, the same being no other nomination.

Whereupon the President of the College declared that Calvin Coolidge of the State of Mass had received eight votes for Vice-President of the United States, the same being the whole Electoral vote of the State of Maryland.

The President of the College then directed the Secretary to prepare the several forms of certificates for the signatures of the Elector, which has by the Secretary done in the following form, to wit:

(over)