

the United States to serve for and after the third day of March, 1925, are contained in the certificate and return contained in the envelope given under my hands and seals this 12th day of January, 1925.

Attest:
 James M. Munroe
 Secretary

Harry N. Abercrombie	(SEAL)
Frederick N. Case	(SEAL)
Thomas P. Thornton	(SEAL)
Joseph B. Chenoweth	(SEAL)
Wilford D. Dill	(SEAL)
Henry N. L. Guice	(SEAL)
James C. Purley	(SEAL)
Harry E. Baker	(SEAL)

Old Senate Chamber, Electoral College
 Annapolis, Maryland, January 12, 1925.

A similar certificate was delivered to Elder E. Chenoweth, previously appointed Messenger, and he was duly authorized with all convenient dispatch to convey and deliver the same to the President of the Senate of the United States at Washington.

A similar certificate was delivered to Harry N. Abercrombie, President of the College, to be by him delivered to the United States Judge for the District of Maryland, in Baltimore City, and another sealed and given to James M. Munroe, the Secretary of the College, to be deposited in the Post Office at Annapolis, directed to the presiding officer of the United States Senate.

Proceedings of Electoral College
 Annapolis, Maryland, January 17, 1925.

- (1) The election of a President, a member of the body, Harry N. Abercrombie.
- (2) The election of a Secretary, a non-member of the body of the Electoral College, James M. Munroe.
- (3) Notification to the Government that Electoral College is in session and appointment of two members of the College to wait on the Governor for any message he may have to make to them.
- (4) Nomination and election by ballot of the President of the United States of America.