

REGISTRATION.

The Mayor and City Council of Midland shall cause to be made and maintained a registration of the legal voters of said town annually, which registration shall be essential to the right of voting at any election under this charter, but shall not be conclusive evidence of the right to vote. And said Mayor and Council shall, annually, on or before the third Monday in April, appoint two persons as officers of registration, who shall sit in public for two days, from nine o'clock A.M. to twelve noon, and from one o'clock P.M. to five o'clock P.M., and from seven o'clock P.M. to nine o'clock P.M.; and the officers of registration shall give at least one week's notice by publication in one or more newspapers or by hand bills of the time and place of their sitting, which must not be less than one week before the election, at which all the qualified voters as hereinafter prescribed may register; and the said officers of registration before entering upon their duties shall take an oath before some justice of the peace of Allegany County to permit every qualified voter, and none other, to register, and either of said registration officers shall have power to do all things under this paragraph, in case one of them died or refused to act; and upon the completion of the registration of voters, the said officers of registration shall deliver to the judges of election a list of the qualified voters so registered; and the officers of registration shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and Council of said town shall determine.

MAYOR.

No person shall be eligible to the office of Mayor unless he has attained the age of twenty-five years, and shall have resided in the town limits of Midland, as prescribed in the plat and survey thereof on record in the clerk's office of Allegany County, for three years next preceding his election, and shall also be assessed on the tax books of the town of Midland with an amount not less than two hundred dollars in real property. The Mayor elected at any regular election shall hold office for one year from the first Monday in June next after his election and until his successor is elected and qualified. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Mayor more than six months before the expiration of his time by reason of removal from the town, death, resignation or removal from office or otherwise, the Council shall, without delay, proceed to elect a successor who shall possess the same qualifications as herein provided for the election of the Mayor by the people.
