to appear before the next term of court to answer the charge of selling without a license; and if, upon trial of such person so recognized, he shall produce a license, the court may, in its discretion, cause the party indicted to pay the costs of the prosecution as a punishment for his refusal to produce the license when required by the constable, and the said constable shall return to the grand juries for the said terms of the Circuit Court lists of all places of business in their respective districts, which list shall contain the names of persons doing business at each place, the character of business, the date of the license, which shall include the year for which it is issued, and the name therein. Each constable appointed by the County Commissioners as inspector of license shall receive from them a fee of ten cents for each license inspected by him, on making affidavit that he has personally inspected said license.

Constables'
fees.

142F. Constables in Baltimore County shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them; provided, that no constable in said county shall be entitled to receive from the County Commissioners more than fifteen dollars in fees for his services in criminal cases in any one month; and, provided, further, that no constable shall be entitled to receive any fee in connection with the case of any person charged with violating the provisions of Chapter 397 of the Acts of 1892. No constable shall deputize any person to act in the service of any writ whatever for him or in his behalf.

Justices of the peace's fees.

142G. Justices of the peace in Baltimore County shall be entitled to charge for their services in criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents for each summons for witnesses, including all the witnesses ordered by the same party or side at one time, twenty-five cents; provided, that if more than five witnesses be ordered by the same party or side at one time, then the justice of the peace shall be entitled to receive twenty-five cents additional for each additional five witnesses, or less than five so summoned; for every oath or affidavit, ten cents; for each hearing or trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the Circuit Court, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case for hearing or trial before a justice of the peace, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances of all witnesses in any one case, twenty-five cents each, provided that no recognizance for the appearance of any witness shall be taken unless the justice of the peace
