

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

tions appointed by them under the provisions of said Article 33 for the conduct of elections held thereunder in Baltimore City and the several counties. The books of registry shall be furnished to the judges at each polling place, and shall be used at such elections in the same way as they are now used at municipal and county elections held under the provisions of said Article 33. In the books of registry, to be hereafter prepared for use in Baltimore City, a column headed "Voted at Primary Elections" shall be used, in which column such word "Voted," or letter "V," shall be hereafter entered at the primary election at which such registry shall be used; in the counties, until new books of registry shall be required to be prepared according to existing law, the present books of registry shall be used, and the judges shall therein make a column headed "Voted at Primary Election of.....," and enter in like manner therein the word "Voted," or the letter "V." Persons arriving at the age of twenty-one years after the closing of the next preceding registration, and entitled to be registered as qualified voters, shall be entitled to vote, upon proving under oath, to the satisfaction of a majority of the judges of election their right to registration in the precinct at which they shall claim the right to vote. Official ballots shall be prepared for such primary elections by the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections, as is now provided by said Article 33, and said several Boards of Supervisors shall print on said official ballots the names of all candidates and the names of all delegates to any convention or nominating convention, who shall become duly qualified by the payment of the amount herein named, and shall have filed a certificate in writing containing the name of the person seeking a nomination, his residence, his business, his address, the office for which he seeks to be nominated, and the party to which he belongs; and the certificate for delegations to contain the names of each person or delegate, his residence, his business, his address, the convention to which the delegation seeks to be elected, and the party to which the members of the delegation belong, and acknowledged by the candidate where the certificate is filed by a candidate seeking a nomination, and by a member of a delegation on his part, and on the part of the delegation, when filed on behalf of a delegation before an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, who shall append a certificate of such acknowledgment. All such certificates must be filed and payments made not less than fifteen days before the day or days of said several primary elections.
