

November following, both days inclusive, in each and every year, or any woodcock between the sixteenth day of August and the thirtieth day of June following, both days inclusive, in each and every year, or any squirrel between the twenty-fourth day of December and the thirty-first day of August following, both days inclusive, in each and every year; or any plover or snipe between the sixteenth day of August and the first day of March following, both days inclusive, in each and every year; or any robin, thrush or oriole at any time; and it shall not be lawful for any person to sell, expose or offer for sale any of the above-mentioned birds at any time, or any rabbit or squirrel except during the open season for the same, or to carry out or cause to be carried out of the limits of the aforesaid county any bird or animal mentioned in this section, either dead or alive; nor shall it be lawful for any agent for any express company, railway or steamboat line to receive the same for shipment.

Penalty for violation of law.

Sec. 80. Any person violating the foregoing section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of Anne Arundel County, shall pay a fine of one dollar for each and every partridge, quail, pheasant, woodcock, robin, thrush, oriole, snipe or plover, shot, caught or taken or sold, offered for sale, exposing for sale or carried out of the limits of said county, together with costs of proceedings, and shall pay a fine of one dollar and costs for every rabbit or squirrel shot, killed, caught or carried out contrary to the foregoing section. The possession by any person within the said county of any of the birds or animals mentioned in the preceding sections at any time during which said possession is prohibited by said sections shall be prima facie evidence of the violation thereof, and the presence of an person in the field or on any public road accompanied by a dog and with gun in hand during the closed season of partridges, pheasants, quail and woodcock as provided above shall be considered as prima facie evidence of such violation.

Prima facie evidence of law's violation.

Unlawful to kill certain game at any time.

81. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident or land owner of Anne Arundel County to shoot, kill, catch or in any manner entrap or destroy any partridge, quail, pheasant, woodcock, rabbit, or any kind of game in said county at any time, and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace for this county shall pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty