

east side of South Charles street with the south side of Camden street, and thence along the south side of Camden street westerly to Howard street at the point of beginning.

SEC. 31. And be it enacted, That while the work authorized by this Act is being done by said Commission the respective duties and powers of the City Engineer and Commissioner of Street Cleaning and other city officials in their relations to the pavements and other street surface improvements of the City of Baltimore shall, subject to the duties and powers hereby conferred upon said Commission, continue as at present, and said Commission shall be authorized as its work progresses to turn over from time to time such completed portions of said work as it may see fit to the charge, superintendence and control of the proper city officials, and shall, on the termination of its work, turn over all the records, writings, papers, copies of reports, and maps of said Commission other than those hereinbefore directed to be turned over by the City Register to the Commissioners for Opening Streets, to be by them preserved and to be used as their own papers and records are preserved and used; and all other property and effects in its possession belonging to the City Comptroller to be disposed of by him as may be provided by ordinance.

SEC. 32. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 11, 1904.

CHAPTER 88.

AN ACT to incorporate the Provident Savings Bank of Preston, Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Albert W. Sisk, Alexander Noble, Jesse T. Dennis, Walter M. Wright, Arthur J. Messick, James B. Patton, S. Elbert Douglas, William J. Wright, G. Edgar Williamson, all being residents of Caroline County, State of Maryland, and their successors in office, be and they are hereby constituted and made a body corporate and politic under the name and style of the Provident Savings Bank of Preston, Maryland, and by that name shall have perpetual succession and be capable in law to hold and dispose of property, both real and personal, to sue and be sued in courts of law, equity, and any other place; to receive and make all deeds, transfers, contracts