

every year; nor any partridges (or quail), rabbit (or hare), between the fifteenth day of January and fifteenth day of November in each and every year; nor any raccoon between the thirty-first day of March and the fifteenth day of September in each and every year; nor any muskrat or otter between the first day of April and the fifteenth day of December in each and every year; and it shall be unlawful for any person at any time to dig into and destroy any muskrat home or den; provided, however, that nothing herein contained is intended to prevent any person at any time from digging out muskrats, minks or otters making dens in or tunneling into a mill dam or from killing at any time any of the animals depredating upon their property.

Unlawful to use artificial light.

27A. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to shoot, trap or kill any otter, muskrat or wild duck in Caroline County by the aid of any reflector or any artificial light, and any person or persons violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than six months, in the discretion of the Court.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act within the same embodied in the Code of Public Local Laws or in the Code of Public General Laws be and the same is hereby repealed so far as they relate to Caroline County.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 17, 1904.

CHAPTER 92.

AN ACT to add an additional section to Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Corporations," to be known as Section 221A, sub-title "Safe Deposit Companies," defining and restricting the terms upon which trustees, executors or administrators, or other fiduciaries, renting boxes or safes in safe deposit vaults in this State, shall be permitted to have access and entry to the same in person or by deputy.