

Qualification
and bond.

Peace or the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick County or Notary Public, and before proceeding to act shall give bond to the Burgess and Councilmen of Myersville, with the securities to be approved by the Councilmen, in the sum of five hundred dollars for the faithful discharge of his duties. And the Councilmen and the officers of the corporation, before entering upon their respective offices, shall take oath that they will faithfully discharge the duties of their office without partiality. If the persons elected Burgess and Councilmen respectively, or any of them, shall fail to take the oath prescribed in this section within ten days after notice of their election shall have been communicated to them in writing by the person who, under the ordinances of the town, may be appointed to hold such election, the said person or persons so appointed, within five days thereafter, shall order an election to fill the vacancy or vacancies caused by such failure to qualify.

Election to fill vacancies.

Corporation
meetings.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Burgess and Councilmen may meet as often as business of the corporation may require, and shall call a meeting upon application of two Councilmen, at which meeting the Burgess shall preside and if, during their term of office, any of the Councilmen or if the Burgess shall die, resign or remove from said town, an election shall be called by said Burgess, or in the event of his death or resignation, the Councilmen to fill the vacancy; at which election all persons qualified under Section 3 of this Article shall be entitled to vote; said person or persons to hold office until the next general election.

Treasurer's duties and salary.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said Burgess and Councilmen shall organize and elect a Treasurer and a Secretary from their number, and all orders for money to be paid out shall be countersigned by the Burgess. The Treasurer's salary shall be three hundred dollars per annum. The Treasurer shall collect all taxes levied by the Burgess and Councilmen, and shall have the same power to distrain and sell therefor as collectors of county taxes; all ordinances passed by said Councilmen and signed by the Burgess shall be entered by the Secretary in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall at all times be open for public inspection. The Treasurer shall receive and disburse, on the order of the Burgess, all moneys collected under the ordinances of the corporation, and shall give bond to the Burgess and Councilmen of Myersville to the amount of one thousand dollars with such security as they shall require; he shall report annually

Bond.