

194A. That Benjamin Carr and W. H. Dorsey are hereby constituted a Board of Election Supervisors for said town of Laurel, to serve until their successors shall have been appointed and qualify, and on the second Monday in March, 1906, and thereafter biennially on the second Monday in March, the Mayor of said town by and with the advice and consent of the City Council shall appoint two qualified voters of said town, not holding any office under the government of said town, who shall constitute the Board of Election Supervisors of said town, and who shall also act as judges of election, to serve for two years and until their successors shall have qualified. And on the second Monday in March, 1906, and thereafter biennially on the second Monday in March, the Mayor and City Council of Laurel shall also in the manner herein provided, appoint two additional persons to act with the said Supervisors of Election as judges of election, and two other persons to act as clerks of election, all of whom shall have the same qualifications as the Board of Election Supervisors. And the said Board of Election Supervisors and judges and clerks of election shall receive for their services the sum of two dollars for each day or part thereof they shall act in their several capacities hereunder, to be paid out of the general fund of said town, and the said Board of Election Supervisors herein named, together with two other persons to be selected by them for the purpose shall be the judges of election, and two other persons to be also selected by them shall be the clerks of election, at the election to be held for Mayor and City Councilmen on the third Monday in April, 1904, and at any special election held prior to the third Monday in April, 1906. And the members of said Board of Election Supervisors and all judges and clerks of election, before entering upon their duties as such, shall each take and subscribe an oath to faithfully, honestly and without prejudice perform each and every duty required of them under the provisions of this Act or any amendment thereto, and such oaths shall be filed with the clerk to the Mayor and City Council of said town, and the Mayor of said town shall have the power to remove the members of said Board of Election Supervisors, and any election officials herein provided for, at any time, upon written charges, after notice and hearing, and to fill any vacancy or vacancies so created, or which may occur by removal from said town, death, resignation or failure to act, in the same manner as is provided for original appointments. And no member of such Board of Election Supervisors, or any judge or clerk of election shall be eligible to an elective or appointive office in said town while so acting.

Local Board of Election Supervisors.

Judges of election.

Compensation
for services.

Oath required.

Power to remove election
officials.