

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville shall submit to the vote of the legally qualified voters of said town the question whether or not said town shall issue the said bonds to the amount of not more than thirty thousand dollars, as hereinbefore set forth, at a special election to be held in the said town, after ten days public notice thereof, by publication at least once before the said election in the "Hyattsville Independent," a newspaper published in the said town, and by such other notice as the said Mayor and Common Council may prescribe or adopt, giving notice of the intent and object of this Act, and date, time and polling place of said election; and that the certificate of the said Mayor of said town of the holding of said election, and of the result thereof, shall be sufficient evidence to the purchaser of the said bonds of legality and the result of the said election.

Election to be held on the issuance of bonds.

Evidence of legality of bonds.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, For the purposes of this special election the Mayor and Common Council are hereby authorized to hold it at one polling place only in said town and to appoint such judges and clerks as may be required, who shall make returns of the result of said election to the Mayor of said town. The ballots shall have printed or written on them the words "For the Issue of Sewerage Bonds," if the ballots to be cast be for the issue, and "Against the Issue of Sewerage Bonds," if the ballots to be cast be against the issue. The returns of said election shall be made as is provided for in the Section 8, and if a majority of the votes cast shall be against the issue of sewerage bonds, then and in that case no bonds shall be issued; but if the majority of the votes cast shall be for the issue of sewerage bonds, the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville, as hereinbefore provided for, may issue said sewerage bonds to the amount of thirty thousand dollars, as hereinbefore provided.

Ballots.

Result of election.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 18, 1904.
