CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT to provide for the dissolution of the Maryland Mechanical and Agricultural Association, incorporated by Act of 1867, Chapter 128, as supplemented by the Act of 1870, Chapter 89, and as supplemented by the Act of 1886, Chapter 123, and as further supplemented by the Act of 1890, Chapter 73; and further to provide for the sale of the land and improvements thereon, belonging to the said association, and to make division of the proceeds of sale among the parties entitled thereto.

Maryland Mechanical and Agricultural Association. WHEREAS, The Maryland Mechanical and Agricultural Association was incorporated by Chapter 128 of the Act of 1867 of the General Assembly of Maryland, and certain persons were named therein as incorporators, and were also appointed trustees for the purposes of the said Act, and the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars was appropriated by the State, to be expended by them for the purchase of ground for the use of said association; provided, nevertheless, that should the association at any time dissolve, the said trustees or their successors, should convey the land so purchased, together with all improvements thereon made free of all incumbrances, to the State of Maryland; and provided, also, if said association should hold no exhibitions on said land for three successive years, the said land should be so as aforesaid conveyed to the State; and
