

their levy there shall be interest charged at the rate of six per centum per annum, but payment of said taxes shall not be enforced by sale until after the first day of January succeeding the date of levy of the same, though the notice now required to be given by collectors, under Section 49 of Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws of this State, entitled "Revenue and Taxes," may be given on or before the first day of December of the year in which the same may be levied.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said Treasurer shall keep and pay over, according to law or upon the order of the County Commissioners, the proceeds of all county taxes levied in said county collected by him, and shall also keep and pay over to the Treasurer of the State, according to law, all State taxes in said county collected by him; and he shall keep a full, particular and correct account of all moneys received by him and paid out by him, and of all matters relating to the duties of his office, together with all vouchers relating thereto; and he shall present, quarterly, to the County Commissioners a true and faithful account of all moneys received and disbursed by him, and all cash on hand during the preceding quarter; the said reports to begin not later than the expiration of the first quarter after the term of office of the said Treasurer shall begin. The said Treasurer shall deposit all the moneys collected by him in a bank or trust company to be approved by the County Commissioners in the name of himself as Treasurer of Charles County, and shall pay out the same only upon orders from the County Commissioners by checks upon said bank or trust company signed by said Treasurer.

Treasurer's
duties.

All moneys to
be deposited in bank.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the passage of this Act shall in no way interfere with the rights and duties of collectors appointed or to be appointed in accordance with the existing law, until and during the year 1905; that all the provisions of Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Revenue and Taxes," or amendments to the same relating to the duties, rights, powers, compensations or remedies of collectors, or proceedings or remedies against them or their bonds, except to the extent that they may be repealed or modified by this Act, shall continue in force and be applicable to the office of Treasurer hereby created; provided, further, that all orders of the Circuit Court ratifying and confirming or setting aside sales of land for taxes shall be subject to an appeal to the Court of Appeals of this State. The reports of said sales shall be amendable in the discretion of the court to conform to the facts of any matters required to be set forth therein; and when any sale shall have

Act not operative until 1905.