

Penalty.

on the streets of the town or within doors when the same shall be deem demoralizing, objectionable or otherwise obnoxious, provided no greater sum than thirty dollars shall be charged for any of the licenses herein provided for.

Licensing saloons.

Sec. 413. The said Burgess and Commissioners shall also have power to license saloons, breweries and all other places where malt, spirituous, vinous, fermented and intoxicating liquors are sold, provided that no greater sum than one hundred dollars, nor less than the sum of fifty dollars shall be charged for said license.

Ordinances to be posted.

Sec. 414. All ordinances passed in pursuance of the powers herein contained and given shall be printed and posted in not less than ten of the most public and conspicuous places within the corporate limits of said town and also recorded in a book for that purpose by the clerk, and this book shall be in the custody and keeping of the Burgesses and Commissioners of the town but shall always be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein.

Laws to remain in force.

Sec. 415. All ordinances heretofore passed by the Burgess and Commissioners of Williamsport now in force and not inconsistent with this Act are hereby continued in force until the same are repealed or modified, and all contracts and stipulations heretofore entered into by the Burgess and Commissioners of Williamsport under the provisions and powers of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland hereby repealed and re-enacted shall be and remain in full force and effect.

Levying taxes.

Sec. 416. The said Burgess and Commissioners of Williamsport shall annually lay an equal tax on all the real and personal property within the corporate limits of the town of Williamsport, or that may have a citus there, by reason of the residence of the owner thereof therein, not to exceed in amount thirty cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of taxable property, to be used for general municipal purposes and for repairs and improvements on the streets and alleys of said town as the Burgess and Commissioners may deem necessary, and if at any time it shall be necessary to meet the expenses of the condemnation of property for the use of the town and of opening new streets and alleys, and putting the same in good passable condition and of grading and macadamizing and otherwise improving any of the streets and alleys of the town, and of any other necessary work outside of the usual order, and which may entail more than ordinary expenses, then the said Burgess and Commissioners may lay an additional tax therefor,