

reasonable sum not exceeding twenty cents per person summoned to testify in court in criminal cases during the trial of such cases in term time; when the sheriff or his deputy cannot summon the same for the want of time, and when such summoned persons reside five miles from Cumberland, and the sheriff shall show that he has actually paid such amounts to additional deputies or constables; sixth, the actual sum of money expended by the sheriff in purchasing food and essential clothing for the prisoners in jail; seventh, the actual sum expended by him for coal and other necessaries of said jail, including a telephone, and said County Commissioners shall allow and pay the said sheriff for no other or further expenses whatsoever, upon any pretext, unless said unenumerated expenses shall have been previously and specifically ordered by the Board in session; provided, that no allowance for expenditures shall be paid or credited to said sheriff unless the same shall be reported under oath by said sheriff to the Board of Commissioners once in each month in writing, which oath shall show that the expenditures above enumerated when made are correct and have been honestly and lawfully incurred and that the sheriff himself has not derived any profit from the purchase thereof, or consumed or appropriated to himself or permitted his deputy to appropriate to himself any part of such purchases; that each expenditure or purchase was reasonable and necessary and the price thereof was not in excess of the market price thereof, which report and affidavit shall be accompanied by properly itemized vouchers or certificates showing from whom and for what purpose the same were made. All false swearing in such report and affidavit shall be deemed perjury and be punished as such. The said sheriff shall also include in said monthly report a full statement of all fines and costs by him collected, and shall pay the same over to the County Treasurer. Any violations of the requirements of this Act, or failure to comply therewith shall constitute a misdemeanor and be punished upon conviction, by forfeiture of office and fine or imprisonment, or by all three, in the discretion of the court.

Sheriff to report under oath all expenses to County Commissioners.

To report all fines and costs collected by him.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1904.

CHAPTER 214.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to pay to Eugene Burke, deputy sheriff,