

over to the Treasurer quarterly all fines collected by him; all stationery supplies used by said Burgess in the town business shall be furnished him by the Burgess and Council.

Fines to be paid over to treasurer.

56F. If the Burgess wilfully neglects to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by the preceding section or refuses to pay over the fines collected by him as herein directed, he shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Washington County, and upon conviction shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding three months, or both in the discretion of the court.

Liable to indictment for neglect of duties.

56G. From any judgment rendered by the Burgess as the police justice in the enforcement of the ordinances of the town, an appeal shall lie by the person aggrieved to the Circuit Court for Washington County; provided, the appeal is taken within three days after the rendering of the judgment, and provided the person aggrieved shall enter into good and sufficient bond for the faithful prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of all costs in case the judgment be affirmed; but no appeal shall stay process or execution upon judgment unless the bond be given as above provided.

Right of appeals.

56H. The bailiff appointed for the enforcement of the ordinances of the town and the preservation of its peace and good order shall have all the powers of constables; and any person resisting a bailiff in the discharge of his duty shall be liable, upon conviction, to punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable; and any bailiff so appointed who shall be guilty of official misconduct shall be proceeded against by presentment and indictment in the Circuit Court for Washington County, and if found guilty shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court. He shall receive for his services the same fees as are allowed by law to constables for similar services.

Bailiff has similar rights of constable.

56I. The Burgess and Council shall have power to provide for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening or closing up in whole or in part any street, highway, square, lane, alley, sewer, sanitary sewer, drain, or water course within the bounds of said town, which in their opinion public convenience may require.

Opening widening, etc., of streets, lanes, sewers, drains, etc.

56J. Whenever the Burgess and Council shall direct any street, highway, lane, alley, square, sewer, sanitary sewer or watercourse, or part thereof, within the limits of the town to be laid out, opened, extended, widened, straightened, or closed up, in whole or in part, the Burgess and Council shall give at
