

icating liquors shall be sold in the said county or in any election district, town or city of said county," be and the same are hereby repealed, and that the following sections be enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as Sections 1A, 2, 3, 4, 4A and 4B, and that an additional section be added to Chapter 195, to be called Section 18, prohibiting the sale of liquor in certain districts of said county:

1A. For the purpose of determining the question as to whether or not any licenses shall be granted in Salisbury Election District No. 9 and Delmar Election District No. 11 for the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages therein, the sense of the qualified and registered voters of said Salisbury Election District No. 9 and Delmar Election District No. 11 shall be taken at a special election which shall be held in each of said districts on Tuesday, April 26, 1904.

2. That whenever such of the registered qualified voters of any election district, city or town of Wicomico County (except such election districts wherein the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors as hereinafter prohibited) as constitute one-half of all the votes cast for all the candidates for Governor at such election in said election district, city or town, shall petition the Supervisors of Elections for Wicomico County for the submission at the next regular congressional election held in said county, for the question of granting or not granting any license for the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages therein, the Supervisors of Elections shall order an election to be held for the purpose of determining said question, which said election shall be held at the same time as a regular congressional election in said county; provided, however, that after the special election provided for in the preceding section to be held in Salisbury Election District No. 9 and Delmar Election District No. 11 there shall not be held another election in said districts to determine said question for a period of four years from the congressional election next following said special election.

3. The said elections provided for in the two preceding sections, that is to say, both the special elections to be held in Salisbury Election District No. 9 and Delmar Election District No. 11, and any other election which may take place under the provisions of Section 2, shall be held under the supervision of the Board of Supervisors of Elections for Wicomico County, and as to the place of holding the same, the printing of ballots and the distribution thereof, the method of voting and of counting said ballots, and in Special election.

Supervisors of Elections to act upon petition of voters of election districts.

General election laws of the State to govern local elections.