

Moneys disbursed and balance on hand.

burse all moneys levied and collected for county purposes according to the order of the County Commissioners, and pay over to the Treasurer of Maryland as hereinafter directed in this sub-title of this Article, all money levied and collected for the State in said county; he shall keep a separate account of both State and county levies with each Collector, and shall make and keep a duplicate of each receipt given for all public moneys received by him; he shall make a quarterly statement to the Commissioners, on the first Tuesday of each and every quarter, in a report correctly exhibiting the condition of the county finances under the control of his office; said statement shall exhibit the amount of moneys received by him and all sums of money due to the county from each Collector and all other sources, and the year said sums were levied, the amounts of money, if, any, borrowed by the Commissioners and not yet paid; also the amount of money paid by him on the order of the Commissioners and the object for which said sums were paid, and moneys from the county and unpaid, and the cash balance on hand and how deposited, and these statements shall be made in a securely bound volume, properly made and ruled for these special statements, and they shall be open at all office hours to any and all taxpayers in said county, he shall make monthly returns to the Comptroller of the Treasury; he shall also serve and act as clerk to said Commissioners, and shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners, and perform all such duties as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the clerk of said Board; he shall keep said Commissioners' office open from 9 o'clock A.M. until 3 o'clock P.M. each week day (except legal holidays); he shall have charge of all records, books, etc., of said Commissioners' office, and shall not allow any of them to be removed from said office, except in obedience to a summons or order of a legally constituted court of this State and shall deliver the same to his legally qualified successors; and before entering upon the duties of his office, the Treasurer shall be required to give bond with sureties to the State of Maryland, in such penalty as the Commissioners may deem necessary to protect the public interest; provided, it shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, the same to be approved by the Commissioners conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, as Treasurer and clerk, and the faithful disbursements of all moneys received by him for county purposes, according to the order and direction of the County Commissioners, and to punctually collect and pay over to the Treasurer of Maryland all moneys received by him for the State as herein prescribed and provided

Treasurer's
duties.