

1. The board of directors of said company shall have the power to declare such a dividend upon the stock of said company from time to time as in their judgment the condition of the business of the company may justify and warrant.

2. That the board of directors of said company shall have full power to call in all the common stock of said company and cancel the same, upon condition, nevertheless, that new stock of equal par value be issued to the holders thereof; said directors shall also have power to insert as a condition in the new stock to be issued by them the right of the said company to deduct from the par value of the stock of any holder the amount of any account or indebtedness owing to said company by such holder, and any assignment of such stock by such holder shall be subject to the lien of said company for such unpaid indebtedness; said directors may also insert a condition in said stock requiring the holder thereof to purchase in commodities a certain sum per month from said company, and upon the failure of such holder to make such purchase, the said company shall be entitled to redeem said stock at its par value upon one month's notice of its intention so to do. And this Act shall be considered as incorporated in the charter aforesaid.
