

shall fix the term of office, responsibility and compensation of said collector.

Bailiff and his duties.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That they shall have power and authority to annually appoint a bailiff, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of the said town, and for this purpose he is invested with the same power and authority as any constable now has under the laws of this State; he shall superintend the cleaning out of the ditches and have the same supervision of the streets of the town as the road supervisor has of the county roads, and he shall receive for his service the sum of forty dollars per annum.

Authority to open streets, build bridges, etc.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have power to straighten and widen streets, open new streets, make footways or sidewalks, construct bridges, purchase stone or timber, as they may deem necessary or essential to the comfort, convenience and prosperity of the town of Vienna, and also to purchase or condemn a lot of land adjacent to the said town for the purpose of procuring dirt for the use of the streets and sidewalks; and after having given at least ten days' notice in writing to all persons interested, they shall appoint a committee of three discreet persons, not residents of the said town, who shall, under a penalty of ten dollars, proceed to assess and value on oath what damages may have been sustained by reason of such widening or straightening of said streets or the condemnation of said lot, and shall make return thereof to said Commissioners under their hands and seals; and any person whatever, who may think himself aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioners may, by petition, appeal to the court of Dorchester County; and the Judges thereof are authorized to revise and correct any judgment or decision made by said Commissioners; and the appellant shall be entitled to a trial by jury, provided he shall demand the same.

Right of appeal.

Tie vote.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That if at any election for a Commissioner it shall appear by the record of the judges thereof, that any two or more persons voted for as Commissioners have received the same number of votes so that there is no choice for an entire Board, but a vacancy still existing, the Commissioners in office shall proclaim a new election by giving five days' notice thereof.

Failure to hold regular meeting.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners of said town fail at any time to hold their regular quarterly meetings or their annual election as herein specified, such failure
