CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT to repeal Section 93 (erroneously described as Section 23) of Article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Chesapeake City," as enacted by the Act of Assembly of 1876, Chapter 140, Section 45, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 93 (erroneously described as Section 23) of Article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Chesapeake City," as enacted by Section 45, Chapter 140 of the Acts of 1876, is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

Levying and collection of town taxes.

93. They shall have power to levy and collect taxes in the town not exceeding in any one year forty cents on the hundred dollars on the assessable property of the town. They shall, once in every five years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value and assess the property in the town on the same manner and with like authority as county assessor proceeds to assess in the county, provided that in assessing any of the lands within the limits of the town which may be occupied and used as farms, or may be a part or parts of farms, such lands shall be valued and assessed by the number of acres therein. If any owner of property assessed in the town shall feel aggrieved by the assessment made by said assessor he may appeal to the President and Commissioners who may make such deduction therein as to them may seem just and reasonable.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 3, 1904.
