

Court of Appeals cases to be published.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That said Reporter and Codifier shall prepare for publication reports of all the cases argued and determined in the Court of Appeals of this State designated by said Court to be reported within six months from the time when the same shall have been determined. The reports in all cases shall be limited to a statement of the material facts, the principal points and authorities cited by the respective counsel, the opinions of the Court, and an abstract or headnote of the points decided; and each volume of said reports shall also contain a list of cases therein reported, a list of cases decided in the period embraced in the volume designated by the Court not to be reported, and a copious index. The Reporter and Codifier shall, in the usual manner of authors, superintend the publication, correction and proof-reading of such reports, and shall secure the copyright for the State of Maryland and as its property; and in addition to his aforesaid salary shall receive the sum of five hundred dollars per annum for clerical assistance, which sums shall be in full compensation for all his services. The cost of advertising for proposals for the publication of said reports shall be paid by the Comptroller upon the presentation of properly authenticated vouchers. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall promptly deliver to the State Reporter and Codifier accurate typewritten copies of all the opinions of the Court of Appeals, to be paid for by the said Clerk out of the fees of his office.

Clerk of Court of Appeals.

Volume 97.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That Volume 97, of the Maryland Reports, now in course of publication, shall be paid for by the Comptroller and Treasurer in the manner now provided by law; and that this Act shall be applicable to the publication of the reports subsequent to said Volume 97.

To prepare Code of the Public General Laws.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the State Reporter and Codifier shall forthwith, after the Session of the General Assembly in the year 1910, and decennially thereafter, prepare a Code of the Public General Laws of the State of Maryland. The said Code when prepared shall be submitted to a commission of three men learned in the law, who shall be appointed by the Court of Appeals, and if they, or a majority of them, shall approve the same in writing, then the Reporter and Codifier shall cause advertisements to be published in at least two daily papers of the State for one month asking for bids for the publication of such Code within six months thereafter; the number of volumes to be prescribed by the Court of Appeals. And the lowest bidder therefor, upon giving bond
