

conviction thereof in the Circuit Court of Frederick County, or in any other court having jurisdiction in the premises, his office shall be deemed to be vacant, and said Board of Aldermen shall thereupon appoint some other person having the qualifications hereinbefore prescribed for the office of City Register to fill out the unexpired term of the person so convicted. The term of office of the person so elected City Register shall begin on the first Monday next after his election and he shall continue in office until his successor in office is duly elected and qualified.

Mayor's salary and duties.

185. The Mayor shall receive in lieu of fees an annual salary of six hundred dollars, payable quarterly in equal instalments, which sum shall be his total compensation. He shall annually, immediately before making out the tax levy for each year, and as much oftener as he shall deem necessary, examine into and audit the accounts of the City Register, and shall report the result of his examination, in writing, to the Board of Aldermen, who shall preserve such reports and record the same among the minutes of their proceedings. The term of office of the person elected Mayor shall begin on the first Monday next after his election and shall continue until his successor in office is duly elected and qualified.

Board of Supervisors of Elections.

270B. The Governor shall appoint, on or before the first day of April, in the year 1904, unless such appointment shall already have been made under existing law, and on or before the same day every third year thereafter, for the City of Frederick, three persons, who shall constitute and be styled "The Board of Supervisors of Elections for Frederick City;" said Supervisors shall be residents and voters of said city, and two of them shall always be selected from the majority political party of the State, one from the minority party; they shall be men of high character and integrity and of recognized business capacity. Each of said Supervisors of Elections shall receive the sum of fifty dollars as compensation for his services during his term of office from the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick. The salaries and all other expenses incurred by them in the proper discharge of their duties as such Supervisors of Elections shall be audited and paid by the Board of Aldermen by warrant drawn upon the proper officers of said city; any person or persons appointed Supervisors of Elections of said city in pursuance of this section as it stood prior to the passage of this Act shall perform the duties required by them by law, and all their acts hereafter done in pursuance of such appointment shall be as valid and effectual as if their appointment had been made subsequent to the passage of this Act and in pursuance thereof.
