

Powers of the Chief Inspector of Tobacco.

11. The Chief Inspector of Tobacco shall have the power to appoint one chief clerk, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum, which clerk shall have his office at such one of the warehouses as shall be designated and occupied by the Chief Inspector for all of the business done at all of said warehouses; and said Chief Inspector shall also have power to appoint an assistant clerk, whose salary shall not exceed eight hundred dollars per annum, and who shall perform such duties as may be assigned him by the Chief Inspector. The said Deputy Inspectors provided for in this sub-title shall respectively be in charge of such warehouse as they shall severally be assigned to by the Governor, and shall each be authorized to appoint one assistant deputy inspector, one tobacco note clerk, one receiving clerk, one shipping clerk, one weighing clerk, one assistant clerk, one sample tyer, one janitor, one finder, one elevator and one stay floor man, and not more than ten screwmen nor more than four laborers. The salaries of the tobacco note clerks shall be one thousand dollars per annum each; assistant deputy inspectors, receiving clerks, shipping clerks and weighing clerks shall be eight hundred dollars per annum each, and that of sample tyers seven hundred dollars per annum each; the wages of the assistant clerks, janitors, finders, elevator and stay floor men and screwmen shall be two dollars per day each; and the wages of the laborers shall be one dollar and fifty cents per day each. No deputy inspector shall employ any additional force of labor than that hereinbefore specified without the approval of the Chief Inspector, but with such approval the said deputy inspectors are authorized to employ such additional force as may be necessary for the proper and economical management of their respective warehouses, and it shall be the duty of the Chief Inspector to discharge any of said employees of said warehouses whenever their services are not necessary to the proper working of any of said warehouses; and the Chief Inspector may, upon request or with the consent of the deputy inspector of any warehouse, assign any employee of such warehouse to any work that may be deemed necessary for the business of the tobacco warehouses, and all expenses incident to such special assignments shall be payable out of the funds of the tobacco warehouses in the hands of said Chief Inspector.
